Mission to Abengourou Ministry to the Agni People of Cote d'Ivoire

1. Mission Trip To Abengourou in Ivory Coast.

Extensive travels are actually not very easy but they glorify Jesus and extend the borders of the gospel. By the grace of God, Sampson traveled to Abengourou to meet the missionary family of Pascal & Mary (Togoese missionaries serving the Agni people for the past eight years). The visit focused on discipleship training and leadership development. Prior to this he participated in four days of leadership meetings of MANI - Movement of African National Initiatives. MANI targets Unreached People Groups in Africa through research and mobilization of indigenous people to bring the gospel to them.

The church at Abengourou is an outreach to the Agni people. A new well to replace the old community borehole is only one of the ways Pascal and Mary have impacted the lives of the local people.

Sampson was presented with local kente cloth during his visit to missionaries Pascal and Mary as part of his ministry to support God's servants in the field.

2. Celebrating the Paschal Lamb.

The Living Bread Missions churches in the Tema-Ashaiman district gathered to give glory to God for Jesus our Passover Lamb. In depth teachings and confirmation of the undiluted foundational GOSPEL was reemphasized. The teachings were also premised on our understanding of the salvation, deliverance and forgiveness in Christ who is the wisdom and the power of God. We renewed our commitment to take the pure gospel to the unreached.

3 . T h e Month of Evangelism & Missions.

Various local churches were involved in evangelistic outreaches to win souls into the kingdom.

Personal evangelism was encouraged everywhere, but above all, the LBM Mission Outreach Team (MOT) launched out to support efforts to plant a new church in Afife. Pastor Frank Domi, the Akatsi Church leader, hosted the team in this community where idolatry is quite prevalent. Some modest gains were made in soul winning for the Kingdom.

4. FOCUSED & PROLONGED PRAYER FOR THE FULANI OF WEST & CENTRAL AFRICA.

The LBM adopted the Fulani people group for prayer in 2010 at the Lausanne's Capetown 2010 in South Africa. We have prayed consistently since. We now hear of a lot of interest being generated in them by various missionary groups and agencies - PTL.

The Ffulde/Fulanis live in most of the countries in West and Central Africa such as Burkina Faso, Mali, Ghana, Chad, Cameroun, and Nigeria, and easily move to new territories as migrant cattle rearers and farmers. They love adventure and are basically oriented towards Islam as a religion. The Fulbe (as they are otherwise known) "are situated normally in physically difficult or unsafe locations" but are very resilient. However, they need the gospel message and other facilities that will penetrate their culture and reach their hearts for Christ.

Pascal and Sampson used a motorcycle to visit people around Abengourou in Cote d'Ivoire.

P.U.S.H. - Pray Until Something Happens. Can we dedicate this month to prayer for the FULANI.

PRAYER REQUESTS

- A new batch of GTTR training is scheduled for the Upper West region of Ghana, specifically the township of Lawra. Trainees and trainers in Child Evangelism will meet from 15-27 April. Please pray for journey mercies, wisdom and God's supplies for a successful 3rd session of this specialized outreach.
- The LBM Children's Annual Missions Camp takes place at Ve Kolenu in the Hohoe area of the Volta region. Children will be drawn from branches across the country - journey mercies still needed aside the support for teachers and students alike. The dates are 23-29 April.
- Pray also for the commencement of work on a new phase of the 20 acre farmland. Remember Dotse and David who are moving to the farm to engage fully with vegetable cultivation.
