

Living Bread Missions

Responding to the Great Commission to Go, Preach, Teach and Disciple the Nations (Matthew 28:19-20). We hasten the Lord's coming by Reaching the Unreached and Training the Church.

The Compelling Reason for Discipleship in Missions Life is Short

1. Why We Must Disciple The Nations.

Disciple-making is the ultimate of all ministry. God's missional and redemptive agenda is to restore the fellowship and communion with man on all fronts of life. There is no greater expression of this REDEMPTIVE AGENDA than a soul fully dedicated and committed to his God, Master, Savior, and Lord - walking with Him daily and in sweet communion. In His discipleship call, Jesus promised "FOLLOW ME and I WILL MAKE you fishers of men. Mark emphasized "...He called twelve and appointed them apostles, THAT THEY MIGHT BE WITH HIM and that HE MIGHT SEND THEM to preach and cast out demons..." Mark 3:13-15.

Death is inevitable, leaders will retire/resign, and life's compelling situations will not allow us in the same role forever. What we do with Him that will remain forever, is to PREACH the Gospel and MAKE DISCIPLES who multiply the results when we are gone to eternity - that's the JESUS STYLE!

Prayer: The Bono Mission outreach comes off 16th - 26th December 2020 in Techiman. Pray that souls are won for His glory whilst the sod is cut for the Discipleship Training Center.

2. Wonderful Stories.

Pray for M* who is an elderly convert from Islam but integrating her faith in Christ. She briefly visited the Jehovah Witnesses in search of the truth but has finally come to Christ and baptized.

"I have found the truth and will remain in Christ." She has some health challenges and needs interventions. J* is also an elderly man also heard the Gospel, gave his life to Christ, struggled with his previous commitment to JW teachings but recently agrees to discipleship meetings to explore the Christian faith on a deeper level. J also has some health challenges and for which we are praying and seeing some improvements. Pray for both M and J.

3. GTTR Chamba

For the third time in 2020's Corona environment, the Lord has allowed us to reach out and train people in effective Children's ministry. The Gospel is reaching the unreached communities - places where it is needed most. In the midst of COVID 19 we have now trained and certificated 85 people, and we praise God for each one of them. The greatest joy is seeing younger people involved in the Get To The Roots (GTTR) training. From the 26th November to 2nd December, the LBM collaborated with CEF and mobilized churches in the Chamba community of the North East region of Ghana. The Chamba GTTR training covered 25 people from seven different denominations/churches. The goal is to raise Good News Clubs to reach children from the family, community, school, and church with the undying SEED of the Gospel message. Pray that non-Christian kids will find joy in joining the clubs and finding Christ for a lifetime. We have encouraging reports from previous training activities. We are deeply grateful for the collaborations and partnerships that make this work out. Your prayer is deeply appreciated.

The Get to the Roots curriculum provides instruction and opportunities for the students to practice skills they need to start and grow Good News Clubs.

The Dawa facility is now walled, planted and producing, in support of the mission work.
